

Assessment matrix for NUSTEM Experience Week applications (2022)

School	Subject choices	Personal statement (benefits and impacts)
Applicant attends a NUSTEM partner school SCORE: 18	Combination of GCSE and current A-levels (or equivalent) are relevant and aligned with the strand applied for. SCORE: 3	Applicant clearly articulates why they want to take part in the Experience Week and what are the benefits of securing a place. Their reasoning is strongly linked with their academic and /or career aspirations. SCORE: 3
Applicant attends a school with percentage of free school meals above the national average (20.4%) or an Ogden Science Partnership school (physics strand only) SCORE: 12	Combination of GCSE and current A-levels (or equivalent) are fairly relevant and aligned with the strand applied for. SCORE: 2	Applicant fairly articulates why they want to take part in the Experience Week and what are the benefits of securing a place. Their reasoning is linked with their academic and /or career aspirations. SCORE: 2
Applicant attends a school with percentage of free school meal below the national average (20.4%) SCORE: 6	Combination of GCSE and current A-levels (or equivalent) are not relevant nor aligned with the strand applied for. SCORE: 1	Applicant is unclear about why the want to secure a place in the Experience Week. No benefits towards academic and /or career aspirations mentioned or poorly explained. SCORE: 1